My best Christmas ever...

Al Damitio:

"Because we have such a large family, five brothers and one sister, we picked names," Damitio said. "You really looked forward to that one Christmas present. I remember one year when we were little, my younger brother Chris gave my other brother Greg an album. It happened to be a record of the Globe Trotters singing."

"Needless to say, my brother Chris probably bought it from a discount store. My brother Greg was so upset, he never opened the cellophane wrapping on the album. The next Christmas, Greg wrapped up the album and gave it back to Chris. This continued on for several years until Chris had a flood in his basement one day, and the record was destroyed."

Nora Hardin

Westland resident Nora Hardin remembers the Christmas she was 6 years old as her very best.

At that time the country was in a depression. Hardin, who grew up in the south and lived on a dirt road, remembers that on Christmas eve two ladies from a local church came to her family's home. The two women told Hardin's family of seven children that they had run into Santa Claus down the road where he was stuck in some mud.

The two ladies who were named Phyllis and Louise brought a victrola and some records and the family stayed up most of the night dancing and singing.

"My mother named my youngest sister after those two ladies, Phyllis and Louise," Hardin said.

John Clemens,
Inkster councilmember

John Clemens has unforgettable and warm memories of the Christmas of 1989.

That's the year he asked the girl whom he had been dating for nearly a year to marry him.

"We were visiting at my wife-to-be parent's home. It was Christmas Eve, and I decided it was time to make that serious commitment."

Clemens did it in a unique way. He presented his future wife, Donna, with a Christmas ornament as a gift. The gift, a bell, had concealed and tied to the clapper an engagement ring.

"I don't think I will ever forget the smile and the moment when she unwrapped the gift and saw the ring. The moment has been frozen in my memory."

Sharon Scott

Newly-elected councilmember Sharon Scott's favorite Christmas memory happened 22 years ago when her youngest daughter was born.

"On Dec. 17, 22 years ago our youngest daughter Rachael was born," Scott said.

She remembers when her and her husband Ted brought their new daughter home right before Christmas.

"That was back in the old days when they kept you in the hospital for days," Scott said.

Doris Nall:

City Hall executive secretary Doris Nall recalls a most memorable Christmas in 1975.

"It was the first Christmas after I lost my husband Allen and oldest son Wayne," Nall said. "A lot of my children's friends came over Christmas Eve and sat on the floor in front of the fireplace. They asked me to join them. Instead of being very sad, it turned out to be very special."

Tom Brown

Westland City Council President Tom Brown's favorite Christmas memory is from 1945. Brown was in the service and had not been home in three years.

"It was such a joyous Christmas," Brown said. "It wasn't a lavish Christmas because it was during the war."

Brown's whole family was together in his home state of Indiana and he remembers appreciating the fact that his family was able to spend the holiday together.

Melody Coffee,
police mini-station dispatcher receptionist

For, on the morn of Christmas Day 1963 (she must have been 7-years-old at the time), Melody awoke and rushed to the Christmas Tree and there, under one of the branches, was "the best doll house in the whole wide world."

"I must have played with that doll house a million times," she says. "I don't think you can give a girl a better gift."

Fire Chief
William Greenslalt

"Christmas 1961 stands out for me, because it was the first with my children and allowed me to reclaim my own childhood holiday memories. That first Christmas with my children gave me the opportunity to spread the family train track around under the tree and to really share Christmas."

This year also will be a quality time, because of my grandchildren."

Linda Shapona
Executive Director of the Canton Chamber of Commerce

"That's a very easy question for me to answer. It was the Christmas that my son was born. That was the best gift that I could have ever received from God. It was in 1976, and he was born on Nov. 25."

Carolyn Archbold:
Wayne 29th District Court Judge Carolyn Archbold has visions of a white Christmas memory.

"I remember getting up one Christmas morning when I was 7 years old, and there was 18 inches of snow on the ground," Archbold said. "My dad and I shoveled the driveway together. It was great."

William Murphy,
director adult education

As a young recruit of 19, I managed to join a group of other Army personnel from Michigan in 1953 and we chartered an airplane at Fort Rucker in Alabama and flew to what was then known as Wayne Major.

Suffering from a serious bout of homesickness, I found that 10-day leave was the best gift I could have gotten. It still fills me with warm memories."

Cliff Johnson:
Metro Wayne Democratic Club president Cliff Johnson remembers 1977 as being his best Christmas.

"It was the year when the whole family was together, and everyone could afford to buy lots of gifts," Johnson said. "Money wasn't tight back then as it is now."

Mini-miss

Local tot takes state beauty title

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER
Belleville City Editor

She's bright, bubbly, bouncy and a pageant winner – all before she's celebrated her fifth birthday.

Jodie Westerman, who describes herself as "4-3/4 years old," was crowned Mini Miss Metro Detroit and Mini Miss Metro Detroit Talent and will compete in the state pageants in the spring.

"I was a little nervous before I went on stage, but you just have to go up and do it," Jodi said. "I thought I'd be the winner."

After the contest ended, Jodie was awarded a trophy, crown and a stuffed animal. Of the three, Jodie liked the toy monkey with a Santa hat the best.

"I really, really love to dance. It's fun," Jodie said.

The diminutive dancer, who resides in Belleville, takes ballet lessons at the CNS Russian Ballet Theatre in Ann Arbor.

"I was a lion in the Nutcracker and it was fun. One dancer wore a pink dress and had a white thing on her head that went way down. Some day, I'd like to wear a costume like that," Jodie said.

Although she has only taken dance lessons for two years, she has danced most of her young life.

"My husband, Ron, and I were gymnastics coaches, and Jodie grew up in the gymnasium. She's a natural performer, and she enjoys being on stage," said Cindy Westerman. "When we heard about the pageant through a friend, we thought it would be fun to give it a try and Jodie loved it."

Later, the Westermans enrolled Jodie in an acting workshop organized by a children's acting coach from the Bill Cosby show.

"After the class, Jodie competed in a talent show for children in the 10-years-of-age and under category. She spoke for three minutes, and won the talent show," Westerman said.

As her mother spoke, Jodie did an impromptu rendition of a college football promotion commercial.

New church returns to Masses in Latin

By MARGO DEWEY
ANP Feature Editor

A new church in Wayne is offering western Wayne County residents an opportunity to attend traditional Roman Catholic masses conducted in Latin.

Dedication ceremonies Dec. 12 marked the opening of St. Joseph Catholic Church at Michigan Avenue and Fourth Street.

The ceremony began at 5:30 p.m. and was followed by a Pontifical high mass at 6:15 p.m. Bishop Mark Pivarunas, a traditional Roman Catholic bishop from Omaha, Neb. officiated both ceremonies.

The bishop was assisted by other officials including St. Joseph parish Father James McGilloway, Father Francisco Radecki of Akron, Ohio, Father Christopher Raleigh of London, Ontario, Father Ephrem Cordova of Phoenix, Ariz., Father Daniel Dolan of Cincinnati, Ohio and Father Anthony Cekada of Milwaukee Wis.

The dedication was a formal blessing, according to Pivarunas.

"The difference between the traditional Catholic Mass and the New Mass is we reject the changes in the church since the Vatican II Council and its reforms," Pivarunas said.

Between Oct. 11, 1962 and Dec. 8, 1965, Pope John XXIII called the Second Vatican Council. He said he wanted to "open the windows" of the church to the modern world.

The differences between the New Mass and traditional Latin Mass include the following:

• In a typical modern mass (New Mass)—The entire service is conducted in English, the priest sits or stands facing the people and often makes spontaneous remarks to them during the course of the service.

Sometimes, a number of laypeople are in the sanctuary, adding their comments and doing readings. Part of the service takes place on a table with the priest facing the people. The tabernacle is almost never on the table, at the priest's back or off in a corner.

There are handshakes and smiles around the "Sign of Peace." The priest usually distributes communion in the hand or mouth.

• In the traditional Latin Mass—The mass is celebrated in Latin, the ancient and venerable language of the Catholic Church. The priest faces the tabernacle on the altar. He makes no spontaneous comments on his own, but recites exactly the same prayers which have been used by priests for centuries.

Only the priest is permitted to touch the sacred host with his consecrated hands. The people kneel for communion which is received on the tongue.

There is no handshaking and socializing before the blessed sacrament, but rather the people follow the mass silently and reverently with their Sunday or daily missals which translate the words of the priest.

"Our parish is composed of Catholics from all parts of Wayne and Oakland counties who are displeased with their local church," McGilloway said. "About six months ago we started masses in the basement of this church, waiting for the dedication ceremony. We have been renovating the upstairs for permanent worship."

"Traditionally Catholic priests were serving spiritual needs. Today, however, many Catholics just don't think the modern church is a church anymore."

Whereas St. Joseph Catholic Church offers the traditional Catholic mass, St. Mary's in Wayne provides the modern mass.

"Now every Sunday, people can drive and park on the corner on Michigan Avenue in Wayne and decide which mass they would like to attend," McGilloway said.

Anyone interested in more information about the masses at St. Joseph can contact McGilloway at 729-8228.

A formal dedication was conducted for the opening of St. Joseph Catholic Church Dec. 12. Bishop Mark Pivarunas, a traditional Roman Catholic bishop from Omaha, Neb. officiated the ceremony. The bishop was assisted by other officials including St. Joseph Parish Father James McGilloway, Father Francisco Radecki of Akron, Ohio, Father Christopher Raleigh of London, Ontario, Father Ephrem Cordova of Phoenix, Ariz., Father Daniel Dolan of Cincinnati, Ohio and Father Anthony Cekada of Milwaukee Wis. Zebras zap Bears

Wayne unleashes power against Wyandotte, Garden City

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Chuck Henry is back at Wayne Memorial as head cage coach, and the Zebras didn't waste any time letting the rest of the Wolverine 'A' Conference know that they want the crown returned to Wayne.

With All-Area forward Rick Barnes tossing in 17 points and nabbing 11 rebounds, Wayne destroyed Wyandotte 87-35 last week in the conference opener for both teams.

Barnes and guard Donetz Prewitt, who also scored 17 for the evening, sparked the Zebras to a 21-9 first-period, and Wayne never was in any serious trouble after that.

"All the kids contributed," said Henry, who spent last year rebuilding a Walled Lake Central team before deciding to come home. "We executed well and played tough on defense. When you do that, you're bound to win some games."

Wayne turned a 41-23 advantage into a lopsided 61-33 margin for three-quarters as Henry used the bench at will. The Zebras put five players in double figures. Joining Barnes and Prewitt were Greg Hartman, a 6-2 forward, who collected 14 points and 10 rebounds. DeMarco Robinson finished with 11 points and B'onko Sadler added 10.

Wayne also had a relatively easy time against Garden City last week. The Zebras turned back their non-conference rivals, 71-56, as Barnes again provided the team with a game-high 22 points and 10 rebounds. He got six of those points in a 19-16 first-period.

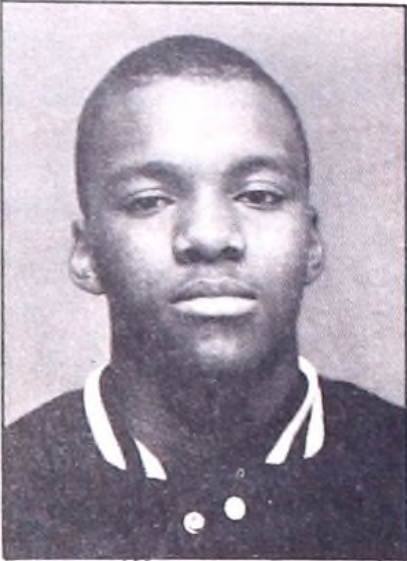

Wayne broke it open in the third period when they outscored Garden City 23-10, after they had led by 11 (37-28) at intermission.

Prewitt and Greg Hartman also found their way into the two-figure column as they scored 12 and 11 points. Garden City got 19 points from Jeff Williams and Scotty Latham counted 13.

Henry launched the 1991-92 campaign with a surprisingly easy victory over a highly-touted Plymouth-Canton. The Zebras won a 71-58 decision. However, they dropped their next one, a 77-61 verdict, to an always respectable Detroit Catholic Central team.

Wayne will carry a 3-1 overall record, which has earned the Zebras a berth among the Vikings return to mats

After a hiatus of nearly 25 years, Inkster High has returned to the competitive wrestling scene.

And Athletic Director George Thompson Jr. has tagged former Fordson High (Dearborn) wrestling great and an ex-Eastern Michigan University captain, Sam Ellis, to field the Vikings' first team since the late 1950s.

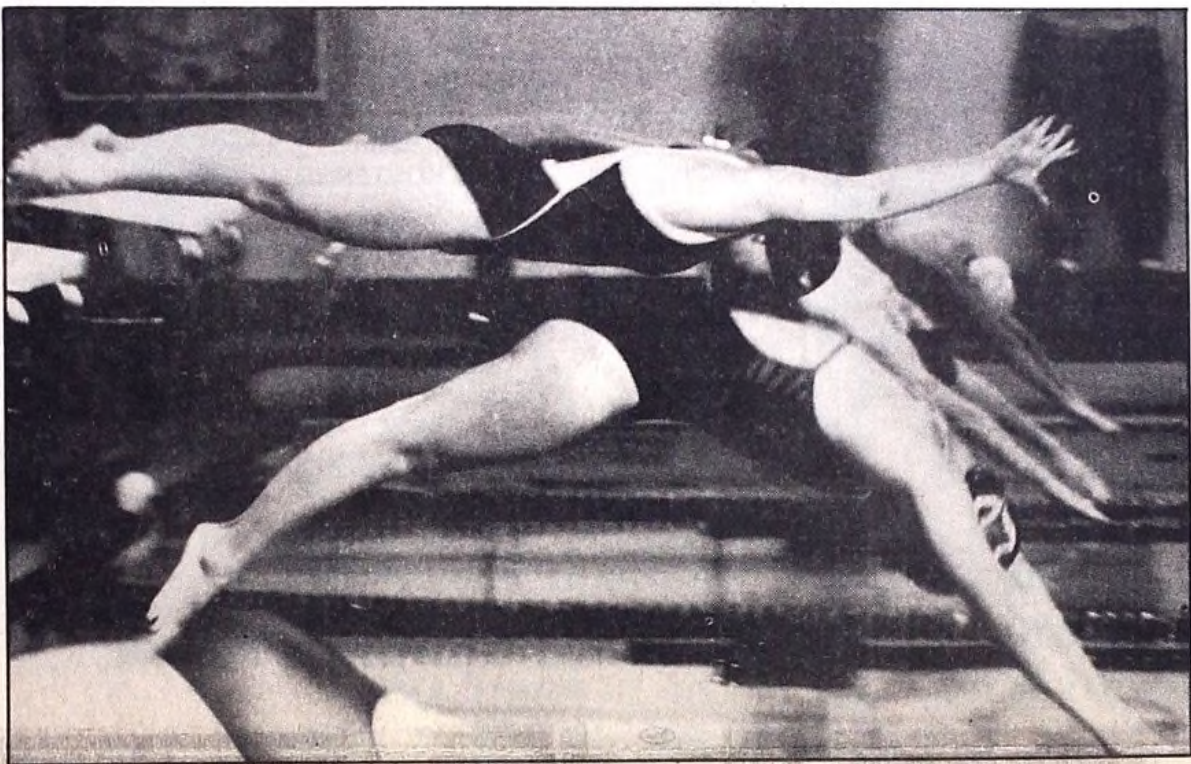

In 1953, Inkster won the Class B state wrestling crown, and the Vikings' fortunes went downhill from there.

Ellis, who formerly coached at Robichaud in the Westwood School District and at Dearborn Heights Bishop Borgess, said that he has an "excellent nucleus of young wrestlers" on the 1991 team.

"It's going to be challenging," Ellis said. "And I am looking forward to it. There hasn't been a team here at Inkster for nearly a quarter of a century. It should prove interesting to see what we can do."

The Vikings launched their season last week at the Marysville Novice Tournament where they produced one gold medalist in heavyweight Fred Davis. They also had a runner-up in 135-pounder Richard Cole, while DuSawn Williams and Levell Jackson finished fourth in the 145-pound and 189-pound classes. Inkster also was represented in the 112-pound division with Marcellis Fizer.

Against Harper Woods last Thursday, Inkster surfaced on the short end of a 54-24 decision. The Vikings took four weight classes.

All-Area swim next week

With Plymouth-Salem and Canton dominating the lineup, the 1991 All-Area women's swimming & diving team will make its appearance on these pages next week. The team, plus a "Coach of the Year", were selected by The Associated Newspapers Sports Staff, in cooperation with the local high school coaches. Don't miss to final tribute to a handful of outstanding young swimmers. ANP file photo

Oak Park edges Inkster

Oak Park, the heir-apparent to the Suburban Athletic Conference basketball throne presently occupied by Highland Park, needed a fourth-period rally to get by a determined and young Inkster cage team Friday night.

Trailing by 10 points entering the final period, the Redskins outscored their hosts 20-8 to salvage a 66-64 victory over the Vikings. The loss spoiled Spencer Grant's coaching debut in the conference.

"We just ran out of gas," said Grant, who replaced George Thompson as head coach. "Our kids are eager for a rematch. I believe they (Oak Park) knew they were in a ball game in this one."

Inkster jumped on the Redskins early as super Viking freshman, Al White (6-5, 228) and sharpshooter Jerry Jordan sank six points each to stake their team to a 23-16 lead. The Vikings remained relentless the next quarter, pounding away at the would-be title contender and building their lead to 40-29 at halftime.

However, a rash of early turnovers in the third period helped lead to a Redskin uprising. They came back on a couple of quick baskets by Alvin Card, who continued to lead Oak Park throughout the second half. When the third period ended, Inkster had a 10-point (56-46) cushion. That soon dissipated.

Card sank four crucial free throws to spark the final surge that opened the way to a 20-8 rout in the last eight minutes.

White finished with a game-high 25 points, 18 rebounds and six blocked shots.

Paquette's goal saves Harlow Tire

Maurice Paquette drilled in his first goal of the 1991 campaign with 4:12 remaining in the game to help undefeated Harlow Tire avert disaster against an unheralded Alternative Funeral Services.

Upset-minded AFS was out to bury the Over 30 Wayne-Westland Hockey Conference leaders, and nearly succeeded. Paquette's goal tied the game at three-all and preserved Harlow's 11-game winning streak. The league-leaders are 11-0-4 on the year. Alternative is sporting a 2-11-2 record.

Alternative launched its attack behind goals from Dave Milan, Doug Morrison and Dennis LaPensee who staked the underdogs to a 3-1 lead. Harlow came back with goals from Jerry Robertson and Norm Beasley to close the gap to 3-2. Then came Paquette's first-goal which saved the day for Harlow's.

Jim Creekmore, Tim Souter, Dave Fishwick and Bob Black each carded assists.

In other conference action, it was Pennington power again for Sportswear Design as Larry Pennington scored five times in a 9-3 trouncing of D. L.'s Lounge.

Lou Balazsi, Craig "Stealth" Albosta, Mike Zimnicki and Dave Quenneville all scored one goal. Paul Roe earned five assists. Ken Smith, Mark Walla, Balazsi and Quenneville also had assists.

Sportswear's record is at 6-8-1.

Clyde "The Glide" Ayers, Jeff Carter and Wayne Robert accounted for D.L.'s goals, while Dan Demers had two assists. Teammates Mike Godvin, Ayers, Robert and Bob Johnson also found their way into the assist column.

Sparked by four goals from Bob Jones, Jake's Again had little trouble beating Millar-Weinberg. Al Farina accounted for two of the goals in the 8-2 victory. Phil Cerne and Jim Miller each scored one. Jake Davidson had three assists. Paul Briski, Tom DiLaura, John Colligan and Dennis Wysocki also had assists.

'Oldtimers' to swim against Wayne varsity

Some of the top Wayne Memorial swimmers of yesteryear will test the Zebras young and bold talent of today in an "oldtimers" swim meet scheduled for 1 p.m. Jan. 2.

Coach Mike Guber and his staff have invited former Wayne High swimmers to their "pool of dreams" to show present members of the varsity team that old swimmers don't fade away.

And those ex-Zebras who wish to compete in the meet should contact Penny Lively at 721-5872.

Wayne, a perennial title contender in the Wolverine 'A' Conference, launched the 1991-92 campaign last week with a thrilling 92-91 victory over Wyandotte. The Zebras will swim out-of-league rival, Ypsilanti, at 7 p.m. on Jan. 7.

TRAVEL TIPS

Amsterdam is one of the most beautiful cities in Europe and one of the best for a single destination visit. Seventeenth century homes still line the streets and canals. Inside these buildings you'll often find wonderful museums including the home of Rembrandt, open to the public since 1911. The home of Anne Frank, where her diary was written, is also a museum.

This is also the perfect place for those who like to wander independently or to base themselves in one place and take day trips. This is easily arranged in Amsterdam where you can visit other Dutch cities or travel further on the excellent European rail system. You can take one day excursions to Drenthe, an area known for its ancient burial mounds dating back 5000 years and the near-by Noorder Dierenpark in Emmen, where animals are housed according to country of origin.

Less than an hour away are the Hague, Delft and Rotterdam, all easily reached by rental car or rail. The Hague is the site of government and many buildings are open to the public. There are also museums and art galleries with some magnificent 17th Century paintings. Nearby Delft, known for its blue and white earthenware, is also a marvelous city in which to wander as is Rotterdam, the port city of Holland.

Another city loved by visitors is Maastricht where you'll find more restaurants and bars per city block than anywhere else in Holland. In a country known for wonderful, hearty cuisine, you won't go hungry anywhere, so forget your diet and call us for reservations to Holland.
